WHO ARE WE?

Historic Royal Palaces (HRP) is a registered charity, responsible for the care, conservation, and presentation of HM Tower of London (TOL), Hampton Court Palace (HCP), Kensington Palace State Apartments, (KP) the Banqueting House at Whitehall (BH), Kew Palace (KEW) and Hillsborough Castle and Gardens, (HCG) the official residence of HM The King in Northern Ireland and residence of the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland.

HRP is an independent charity, receiving no government funding and derives its income principally from admissions, retail, licensing, commercial events, sponsorship and support from donors and members.

HRP is a charity for everyone. We are committed to preserving and sharing the stories of our six magnificent palaces and making them accessible to all. Through partnerships, innovation, and storytelling, we strive to break down barriers, inspire curiosity and stir the spirit in people of all ages and backgrounds.

HRP operates a number of visitor catering outlets at Hampton Court Palace, HM Tower of London, Hillsborough Castle & Gardens and Kensington Palace on a concession basis.

With a newly launched strategy in April 2024 focusing on Historic Royal Palaces becoming a charity for everyone we are looking to align a future new catering partner to our new strategy as an important part of our visitor experience. We have three new strategic pillars:

Reaching further – Go where people are, remove every kind of barrier, work with partners to multiply connections.

Meaning more – Be current and relevant, make our stories relatable to everyone, helping people explore on their own terms.

Acting for the future – Making a positive impact on the planet, passing on better the things we look after, investing in and listening to young people.

OUR SITES

TOWER OF LONDON

The Tower of London is a 1,000-year-old castle on the banks of London's River Thames. It was a secure fortress, a royal palace and an infamous prison.

Today, William the Conqueror's distinctive White Tower stands as a powerful symbol of the nation. Inside its mighty walls you'll discover the spectacular Crown Jewels, be entertained by the legendary Yeoman Warders, and see wonderful displays of arms and armour. You'll also explore spaces where famous prisoners were kept, and discover the graffiti they left behind 500 years ago.

Watching over the Tower are its famous ravens. Legend says the kingdom will fall if they were ever to leave.

A close-up photograph of a hand lifting a clear glass cloche from a plated dessert. The dessert is served in a glass ramekin on a white plate with a gold rim. It consists of a red sauce at the bottom, a yellow custard-like layer in the middle, and a white cream topping garnished with fresh raspberries and mint leaves. The background is a dark, textured surface.
